Meeting held at Derrinallum Hall Wednesday 25th September at 7pm

Meeting was organised by Derrinallum Progress Association president, Kevin Molesworth to gauge interest to get speed limits lowered through towns of Derrinallum, Lismore, Darlington and Skipton (all in the Corangamite Shire)

Almost 100 residents attended the meeting with all in favour to do whatever it would take to implement these changes.

Richard Riordan MP was in attendance with Federal Member for Wannan Dan Tehan taking part via open phone.

Dan's message was to get up to 400 signatures on a petition and he would present it to parliament.

Crux of the meeting was to flood the powers to be with petitions and more importantly with individual letters and not to give up till the matter is resolved.

Safety issues were the big worry with many fearing it would take a fatality before something was done.

All towns have been endeavouring to get these changes implemented for many years with all efforts falling on deaf ears.

Bible Thought

Jesus in answer to the Pharisees, gave the greatest commandment, "Love God with heart and soul and mind and strength"

Mathew ch.22 v.37, 38.

Below as read by Craig Young at the recent internment at Skipton Cemetery:

Jean Young OAM (Nee Grist)

25.06.1933 - 16.11.2023

The world's a little duller, there is less kindness here
For a woman who gave so much to others, is no longer near.

Willful, strong & proud, intelligent & fun

Jean Young OAM was certainly a feisty one!

Sometimes she was so direct, it took people by surprise
But when all things were considered, her words were usually wise.

A serious straight shooter, with an unwavering approach
Stoic in bright lipstick, a cardy & a brooch.

She filled the traditional roles of Mum & Alan's wife
And brought three great people, Lorinda, Trevor & Craig into this life.

She jumped out of airplanes & multi storied buildings
she scaled

An octogenarian with attitude, her sense of adventure never failed.

I will remember her as a woman, who inspired me to be brave.

To be resilient & grasp each day & not always to behave.
She has left behind a legacy, of service, commitment and care

A hole so big it can't be filled, because she was so rare.

Moreton Hill Wind Farm

The proposed Moreton Hill Wind Farm is located on Wadawurrung Country, about 35 kilometres southwest of Ballarat. The wind farm will have up to 62 turbines, producing enough electricity to power around 260,000 homes and prevent almost 350,000 tonnes of emissions annually.

The wind farm is proposed to connect to the electricity network via a new underground 220kV powerline to the Berrybank terminal station about nine kilometres south of the wind farm.

NHW Award

The end of term three at the Skipton Primary School saw LSC Anthony Graham present the NHW Award, given at the end of each term to a student who has display great citizenship, to Tomoti Frisby.

Acting principal Chanelle said that Tomoti had really gained so much confidence during the term and come out of his comfort zone and gained the ability to voice any concerns he may wish to speak about.

Tomoti is also a most talented piano player and some of us were fortunate enough to visit the music room after the award ceremony and be blown away by his talent.

Tomoti was also part of the Skipton school group who recently performed at the Victorian State School Spectacular where he also went on to play for an enthralled crowd at Melbourne Central shopping centre later on.

Apparently that was something he had to do on his 'bucket list' (he's 12). Tomoti is definitely a 'watch this space' young man.

BELOW ARE SOME EXTRACTS FROM 1934 FROM THE SKIPTON STANDARD
& STREATHAM GAZETTE FROM 90 YEARS AGO
LOCATED IN THE SHS POLICE HOUSE MUSEUM, MONTGOMERY STREET, SKIPTON.

These extracts are researched and provided by:
Terry Gosling (Treasurer of Skipton Historical Society)

At the monthly meeting of the Hospital Committee on Wednesday evening a suggestion was approved that an appeal should be made for eggs. It was considered that the present time would be suitable and assistance from all friends interested will be appreciated.

At the monthly meeting of the Mechanics Institute Committee last Monday night a suggestion to hold a Centenary Ball was approved. A sub-committee was appointed with authority to make the necessary arrangements. It was realised that to ensure success the help of the ladies would be necessary, so all who are willing to assist in any way are invited to meet the sub-committee at 7.45 this evening.

An alteration has been made in connection with the Skipton Garage Co., Mr K. Atkin having purchased the business. Clients are assured of prompt attention to their requirements, and all work in regard to motor repairs, battery re-charging, or sales department will be under the personal supervision of Mr R. Atkin, who hopes for a continuance of support from former customers of the firm.

Considering the unfavorable weather for the hare shoot at Banongill last week the result achieved is regarded as satisfactory, 1,153 hares being collected, while many others were killed during the drive. Two shooters accounted for nearly 300—Mr O. Simmering 150 and ex-Inspector Black 140. A number of ladies went out to assist with the luncheon arrangements, and the committee of Skipton Hospital are exceedingly thankful for the help of those kind friends.

FORBES SHIELD TO SKIPTON

Scholars from the Skipton State school went to Lismore last Saturday afternoon to take part in the annual competition for the Forbes Shield, and once again proved their prowess by winning after a contest in which excitement was maintained till the end of the day. For the second year in succession, the balance of points practically turned on the high jump events, at which stage both Skipton and Lismore had a chance of winning.

After the sports the Shield was presented by Rev J. Forbes, the donor, who congratulated the Skipton scholars on their performance. Mr Hayes accepted the Shield on behalf of Skipton and made a brief acknowledgment of the donor's congratulations.

Results of the various events are given herewith, the letter S denoting Skipton competitor and L denoting Lismore:—

kerbside FOGO collections until new year

Weekly

Kerbside collection customers in Corangamite Shire will have their green lidded FOGO bins collected weekly until the new year.

The fortnightly collection of green-lid FOGO (Food Organics and Garden Organics) bins has doubled as gardens enter their peak growing season.

Council Chief Executive Officer David Rae said the extra pickups would start on Monday 7 October and continue until Saturday 4 January.

“There will be a total of seven additional collections which will help our residents get their properties ready for the upcoming fire season.

“There is a window of opportunity to thin out potential fuel loads as plants have a growth spurt after hibernating through winter, but before conditions get hot and dry.

“The increased growth now will dry out in summer so these extra collections are a great opportunity to get rid of overgrowth that could pose a risk to your home or your neighbours if there is a bushfire.

More than just lawn and garden clippings waste can go in FOGO.

All food scraps including meat, bones, citrus and dairy—even pet waste—can go in the green lidded FOGO bin.

Green organic waste that is collected is composted at the Naroghid Landfill and used in rehabilitation works at the site.

Keeping green waste out of landfill saves on waste management costs and reduces greenhouse emissions.

For more information on what can go in your FOGO bin, go to www.corangamite.vic.gov.au/Rubbish-and-Recycling or contact Council on 5593 7100.

What a lovely day we had the day we went to Port Fairy – someone should write a song about it. Rod the great bus driver with Cobden Coaches took the scenic route to Port Fairy for the annual Senior Citizens bus trip and a different route for the trip home which included a trip to Tower Hill near Warnambool where koalas and emus were on show plus the beautiful scenery – well worth a visit.

The day out in Port Fairy began with a delicious morning tea at the home of former Skipton resident Judy Roberts who then came along on the bus for a tour of Port Fairy to show everyone the main attractions of the area with of course the ocean views on rather windy day being quite spectacular. The group of 14 enjoyed a great lunch at Charlies cafe on the beach before saying goodbye and a big thank you to Judy for her great hospitality.

Judy Roberts is third from left in picture - the rest of the crew were stuffing their faces in the kitchen

Want to better understand your children's messy emotions?

Raising children and teenagers can be tricky.

Corangamite families are warmly welcome to come along to an evening with Dr Brenda Heyworth who together, will help us navigate and respond to behaviours at home as well as a framework to help our children and teenagers develop better emotional regulation and self-control.

Dr Brenda Heyworth is a child, adolescent and family psychiatrist, and Educator and author of the parenting book, 'It's a Jungle – A Parent's Guide to Emotions and Behaviour'. With warmth and humour, she translates the messiness of emotions into a parenting approach that makes sense.

It's free to come along and is best suited to families with children aged between 3 to 18 years. Light refreshments will be provided.

Dr Heyworth has decades of experience and has delivered more than 100 workshops, tutorials and keynote presentations relating to mental health, wellbeing, emotions and behaviour.

"When children and teenagers don't know how to handle big emotions, their instincts take over," Dr Heyworth said.

"The evening will give participants a framework to help children and teenagers develop better emotional regulation and self-control."

The event will be hosted by Corangamite Shire Council's Family and Children's Services Team.

Council Chief Executive Officer David Rae invited parents and carers to come to the Killara Centre for an evening of fun and learning.

"It's an opportunity to connect with other families as you navigate your way through raising children," Mr Rae said.

"They can expect Dr Heyworth to translate the messiness of emotions into a parenting approach that makes sense."

The event is at the Killara Centre in Camperdown on Wednesday 30 October, from 6:30-8:30 pm. Bookings: events.humanitix.com/it-s-a-jungle-parent-and-carers-night

A Halloween of a night at Skipton Bingo

What a night at the Skipton Golf and Bowls Club last week where a big crowd arrived 'dressed to kill', for the Progress Association's monthly bingo night with a Halloween theme, a bit scary but lots of fun.

Our budding young musician Tomoti belted out on the keyboards the Addams Family theme song - you know the one "they're creepy but they're kooky" and that's how the night evolved. Lots of laughs and a few screams especially the screams from players who had been hanging out for ages for just that one lucky number and some other ghoulish figure would scream out BINGO!

Bingo caller Georgie along with Ball boy Ian thanked everyone for getting into the Halloween theme and especially thanked local businesses and residents for donating the really great prizes. The next big night will be Wednesday 6th November, the night after the Melbourne Cup so guess what the theme will be??? Well in case you need help here are a few tips – think horses, whips, saddles, jockeys, fancy hats, shady bookies, perhaps disgruntled punters who've lost their shirt – think about it.
